

RICH YOUTHS ARE ACCUSED OF TWO OTHER CRIMES

IOWA MAN NEAR DEATH AS RESULT OF AUTO MISHAP

In Rochelle Hospital; Wife and Brother Also Injured.

(Telegraph Special Service) Rochelle, June 3.—Victor Anderson of Centerville, Ia., most seriously injured in an auto accident on the Lincoln Highway, three miles west of Rochelle, Saturday night, is in the Lincoln hospital here, critically ill with pneumonia which was caused by his injuries—broken ribs and concussion of the chest. His wife and a brother, Walter Anderson, also of Centerville, Ia., who suffered less serious injuries in the accident, were able to leave the hospital today. The brother sustained a slight concussion of the brain, being unconscious until Sunday night, when Mrs. Anderson also sustained a concussion of the head and shoulders. The three were driving toward Rockford where they had planned to spend the week-end with friends. Witnesses claimed that the car left the pavement while traveling at a high rate of speed and, when the driver made an effort to get back on the highway, some part of the steering apparatus went wrong. The car zigzagged for some distance and then turned over, burying its occupants underneath. Passing motorists administered first aid and summoned Dr. Stevens of Rochelle who rushed the injured to the hospital.

CHARGES PLOT AGAINST 'MAC' BY BIG PAPERS

Chairman of Committee for McAdoo Hits at Republican Press.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Los Angeles, Calif., June 3.—A nationwide newspaper conspiracy against William G. McAdoo's candidacy for the democratic presidential nomination is charged in a statement signed by David Ladd Rockwell, chairman of the national McAdoo-for-President Committee, and made public here today by McAdoo's Southern California campaign headquarters. "Almost the entire partisan republican press and all of the reactionary democratic press," says the statement, "have combined to suppress all news favorable to Mr. McAdoo's candidacy. At the same time all news unfavorable to his candidacy has been given conspicuous space upon the front pages. Editorially, too, the partisan republican papers of this country have persistently and consistently endeavored at all times to impress upon the democratic electors Mr. McAdoo's unavailability." The alleged newspaper plot is only one angle of an apparent combination of the republican stand-pat managers and the reactionary forces within the democratic party. "Mr. Rockwell goes on to say, but despite the obstacles erected by this combination, 'the great jury composed of the democratic electors of this country has reached a verdict and it will be read to the great convention in New York, June 24.'"

Former Dixon Man is Hurt in California

Dixon friends of George D. Squires, aged 50, insurance commissioner of the State of California, and a former Dixon man, have received word of his serious injury in an automobile accident at Los Angeles, Calif., Sunday, May 25.—The automobile that was rushing Mr. Squires and his wife to a hospital after they had been struck by an automobile, ran down Ruth Gellert, 13. Squires suffered several fractured ribs and possible internal injuries in the accident that led to the injury of the girl. His wife was less seriously injured and physicians say that the girl's condition is not dangerous.

SCHEDULE FOR SUMMER CLASS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Will Begin Next Monday Morning; Hours Are Announced.

Superintendent I. B. Potter of the Dixon schools this morning announced the schedule for the special summer course which will open at the high school next Monday morning at 8 o'clock. There will be three classes and the schedule will run from 8 to 9:20 for the first class which is commercial arithmetic, from 9:20 to 10:40, community civics, and from 10:40 to 12:00, English history. These classes will be open to all students in high school who wish to take advantage of the opportunity to make up extra credits. Some students avail themselves of the opportunity to graduate in three years' time by means of taking the summer work; others, because of sickness or other causes for absence did not succeed in making the required number of units for the school year. Students living outside of the school district will be required to pay a tuition fee amounting to $15.00 for the term. Any high school students desirous of entering the special summer course of training should register before Monday, at 8 o'clock. All classes will convene at the south side high school.

Brookhart Has Small Lead in Iowa Votes

BULLETIN.

Des Moines, Ia., June 3.—Returns from 1,519 precincts out of 2,412 in Iowa for the republican nomination of U. S. senator, gave Brookhart 122,628; Sweet, 123,134, a lead for Brookhart of 9,494.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Des Moines, Ia., June 3.—U. S. Senator Smith W. Brookhart slowly increased his lead over Burton E. Sweet today as country precincts all over the state reported the result of yesterday's republican senatorial primary. With approximately one-half of the precincts in the state recorded, the senator had a lead over his opponent of 7,101 votes.

Senator Brookhart's campaign leaders declared the increase represented the beginning of the climb in his advantage that had been expected after the bulk of the city votes had been reported, while the campaign managers for the former congressman declared they were not yet ready to admit defeat. The vote in 1,254 precincts out of 2,412 was: Brookhart 112,339; Sweet, 105,238. It seemed probable that the republican state convention will be called upon to nominate a candidate for governor when returns in that six-sided contest had been received from 1,014 precincts. Out of a total of 174,176 precincts, the leader had 50,985 or approximately 29 percent. Thirty-five percent would be necessary for a primary nomination. Hamill was followed by W. J. Burbank with 44,103; Glenn Haynes, 33,754; J. H. Anderson, 30,916; J. D. Buser, 7,637 and A. J. Banks, 6,781.

House Beats Borah Act

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Washington, June 3.—An unsuccessful attempt was made today by democratic leaders to instruct house conferees on the postal salaries bill to accept the Borah amendment designed to give publicity to campaign contributions. Opposing the move, republicans succeeded in having the house managers instructed to press for adoption of a substitute by Representative Cable, republican of Ohio, setting a scheme for regulation of contributions. Representative Garrett, the democratic leader, offered a resolution to instruct the house managers not to agree to a report which did not contain the Borah amendment. Republican leaders made a futile effort to have the resolution thrown out on a point of order, and a standing vote on a motion by Mr. Garrett to terminate debate showed his supporters in the minority.

Mr. Cable then offered his substitute which stipulates that where there are effective state laws they are to control the situation with the federal statute supplementary. Candidates for congress would have to limit their expenditures to three cents for each voter or else confine themselves to not more than $10,000 in seeking a senatorship, or $2,500 in a campaign for representative. Committees and organizations taking part in campaigns would be required to submit annual reports.

Child Labor Clause is Now Up to States

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Washington, June 3.—The child labor amendment to the constitution was before the states today for final action. The proposal which would empower the federal government to limit, regulate or prohibit the labor of children under 18 years of age, already adopted by the house, was approved last night by the senate 61 to 23 and now awaits ratification by three-fourths of the states to become part of the nation's fundamental law.

REPORT OF MOVE AGAINST HEARD WAS UNFOUNDED

Freeport Jurist Elevated to the Supreme Court By Voters.

Reports reaching Lee county late Monday afternoon of an organized movement to take advantage of the light vote occasioned by Judge O. E. Heard's unopposed candidacy for Supreme Court Justice to succeed the late Justice James W. Cartwright of Oregon, and to write in the name of another judge proved unfounded. While official figures from the twelve counties in the district were unavailable today inquiry throughout the territory brought the information that there were but few scattering votes which did not go to the Freeport Jurist, and his election to the place is unquestioned.

ONLY TWO IN DOUBT

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Chicago, June 3.—Election of five of the seven judges of the Illinois Supreme Court was virtually assured today as belated returns trickling in increased winners' majorities. Judge F. R. DeYoung, republican, defeated A. R. Shannon, democrat, by more than 7,500 votes in the seventh judicial district, including Chicago and Cook county, DuPage, Will and Kane counties, with six DuPage county precincts missing. The Justice elect succeeded Justice O. R. Carter, who is retiring.

In the sixth district, Judge Oscar E. Heard of Freeport, republican, and unopposed was elected to the vacancy caused by the death of the late Justice J. H. Cartwright. Justice W. M. Farmer of Vandalla, democrat and unopposed, was elected from the second district. Justice F. K. Dunn, Charleston, republican, appeared to have been re-elected from the third, or Springfield district over L. B. Stringer, Lincoln, by 4,500 votes on the basis of incomplete returns.

Both sides claimed victory in the first district where incomplete returns gave Justice Warren Duncan of Marion, republican, for re-election more than 5,000 votes over Paul Farthing, democrat, blind, East St. Louis attorney.

The current issue of the I. N. U. News, contains an interesting article written by Robert Hallenberg of this city, director of public relations for the company, in which is outlined some of the late important extensions made. In the article, the writer also takes issue with the use of the term, "superpower" as it is used in connection with electrical energy and the article follows: "Superpower" is an overworked and frequently abused word. It is frequently associated with the idea of there being connected with it something of a "super" character or of such extraordinary attainment as to command the flights of fancy. When, as a matter of fact, giant power would be a better word because, in reality, the contemplation is that of extensive inter-connection of large electrical generating units.

In this sense the word is ventured in connection with the completion of the Freeport-Lena line of the Illinois Northern Utilities Co. which was finished the latter part of last month. The completion of this line holds more than ordinary interest as it closes a gap between the Illinois and Wisconsin transmission systems and joins the extensive hydro plants of Wisconsin with the powerful steam plants of Illinois, to the mutual advantage of both. This line, now completed, links the properties of the Illinois Northern Utilities Co. in an extensive "superpower" system.

One continuous copper network, transmitting and distributing electrical energy, now extends from Oshkosh, Wis., to St. Louis, Mo., and from Keokuk, Ia., to Loganport, Ind.

(Telegraph Special Service) Rockford, June 3.—Chester Eugene Harrington of Dixon, arrested Saturday night about 6 o'clock for driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition, was taken into the county court yesterday afternoon on an information. Harrington refused to enter a plea of guilty to the charge as contained in the information and the case was continued until next Monday, his bond being placed at $1,000. Attorney Charles Linscott of this city has been retained by Harrington to represent him in the proceedings.

Americans Prepare to Fly Across China Sea

Kagoshima, Japan, June 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—The American aviators flying around the world spent today tuning up their planes after the flight from Kushimoto here yesterday. They hope to hop off for the flight to Shanghai tomorrow. On this jump of about 500 miles straight across the China Sea, they will have the aid of American destroyers if needed. The destroyers have been stationed in line across the sea at intervals of about 60 miles.

GOLDEN JUBILEE OF SHRINERS IS GORGEOUS AFFAIR

Great Parade Feature of Conclave Opened at Kansas City.

Kansas City, June 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—The golden jubilee of North America's Shriners got under way officially today when 20,000 uniformed pilgrims from all parts of the continent assembled in colorful array to escort the imperial divan to its council chamber. Long before the start of the parade tens of thousands of spectators were surging against cables stretched along the royal trail. Bands, patrols and chanting organizations attired in the gorgeous multi-colored uniforms of 75 teams began lining up early in the morning in honor of Conrad V. Dykeman of Brooklyn, Imperial Potentate, and the other imperial officers. A highway of the Orient, decorated in all the splendor befitting the reception of an eastern prince, led to the imperial council chamber of convention hall.

Parade Big Feature

The parade was the outstanding feature on the day's program. All day yesterday and most of the night last night downtown Kansas City was a riot of music and fun. Bands played as they paraded through the streets and drill teams performed continuously for the on-lookers, singing songs of their respective temples and shouting praises of the home towns.

Imperial Potentate Dykeman, of Brooklyn, brought his own band, known throughout the Masonic world as the "Shrine's Millionaire Band." The organization has seventy musicians, several of whom are millionaires.

Medinah of Chicago, probably the largest caravan—more than 500—carries a 116 piece band, a fifty piece oriental band, five patrols of forty members each and sixty chanters. Some of the temples have their mascots. Mohammed of Peoria, Ill., has "Pat," a good natured camel.

PRODUCERS PRO- NOUNCE PAGEANT PLANS PLEASING

Cast for Big Production Dixon Has Been Carefully Picked.

The Pageant of Abraham Lincoln, which is being prepared for presentation in Dixon, July 9th to 12th, under the auspices of the American Legion, has made remarkable progress during the last week.

There was a meeting of the general committee Monday night at which the casting committee reported that the American Legion Post 109 Sterling had promised to furnish 100 men for the production. The other parts in surrounding towns have responded in a like manner—Polio, 12 men; Franklin Grove, 12 men; Rochelle, 30 men; Morrison, 12 men.

The general manager of the producing company, Walter F. Smith was in Dixon last week and approved the ground selected for the pageant and the work that has been done by the committee thus far, and left with the statement that he expected the Dixon production to be the best that they had put on during these two years of producing this spectacle. The cast has been practically selected and the announcement of those who will take part will be made within a few days.

Unknown Symphony By Mozart is Discovered in Convent at Lambach

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Lambach, Austria, June 3.—A hitherto unknown Mozart symphony, number 221, in C major, has been found in the Benedictine Convent of this city. Musical experts declare that the symphony evidently belongs among the Vienna symphonies of the years 1787 and 1788. The manuscript was found when research students from the Musical-Historical Institute of the University of Vienna came to Lambach to study and classify the musical archives of the convent.

BALLOON HIT BY LIGHTNING; TWO AVIATORS KILLED

Mangled and Crushed Remains Found in Field Near Bement Today.

(BULLETIN) (By Associated Press Leased Wire) Decatur, Ill., June 3.—Examination of the wreckage of the balloon confirms the first belief that it was struck by lightning. The body of Meisinger was found in the basket with instruments and equipment, all badly crushed. The basket sank two feet in the earth. With it were ropes that held the gas bag. Half mile west was the wrecked body of a mile northeast was the wrecked parachute and a quarter mile farther northeast was the silk bag with no ropes or other equipment. In it one big hole had been burned and at noon the bag inside was still warm.

BULLETIN

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Decatur, Ill., June 3.—The mangled bodies of Dr. C. Le Roy Meisinger of the United States Weather Bureau, Washington, and Lieutenant James T. Neely of Philadelphia, who left Scott Field late yesterday in the army balloon S-3 for the ninth of a series of air test flights, were found near Bement, Ill., today. The balloon had exploded and was destroyed by fire. Bement is about 100 miles north east of Scott Field. A watch on Lieut. Neely's body had stopped at 11:35, seven hours before the fatal flight started. Both men were pilots, but Lieut. Neely was in charge of the balloon while Dr. Meisinger made his observations.

Lieut. Neely's home was in Philadelphia. He was about 30 years of age and unmarried. The balloon was the S-3 of $0,000 cubic feet capacity. The flight was the ninth since the tests started early in April.

Bright Light Seen

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Decatur, Ill., June 3.—Lieutenant Neely was found dead in a field five miles south of Monticello, Illinois, early this morning. Apparently he had fallen from a balloon that passed sometime during the night and from a great height as his body was terribly crushed. A clock carried with him had stopped at 11:35.

The body of C. Le Roy Meisinger was found in a field near the Tipperary elevator about eight o'clock this morning. It is surmised that the balloon was struck by lightning. Meisinger's body was badly crushed. His head was split open and all the bones in the body were broken.

Different persons told of seeing a bright light in the sky last night about 11:30, while there was a big rain and wind storm. Neely's body was found in or under the basket with part of the balloon over both. The other body was found three quarters of a mile away.

Neely's body was found by a hired man, named Nutt, on the farm of Carl Wright. Three quarters of a mile away a parachute near a big cottonwood tree attracted attention to the body of Meisinger.

Noted Meteorologists

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Washington, June 3.—Dr. C. L. Meisinger, killed in the balloon explosion near Monticello, Ill., was one of the foremost meteorologists in the United States. He was attached to the weather bureau here and with Lieut. James T. Neely, had been engaged in extensive balloon flights to test atmospheric currents and conditions.

One of the recent flights Dr. Meisinger and Lieut. Neely rode before a storm from Scott Field to a point in Georgia and the two had traveled before the wind across the Canadian border in order to gather data. The compilation of information covering cyclonic disturbances was one of the main purposes of the work and in doing it the two balloonists had repeatedly rode out of severe storms.

Change Reclamation Law.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Washington, June 3.—A bill designed to afford relief to settlers on reclamation projects and to provide sweeping changes in the reclamation laws was reported today by the house irrigation committee. The measure is in line with the recommendations of Secretary Work's fact finding commission on reclamation, which has been approved by President Coolidge. The vote was 12 to 1.

NEW FEDERAL TAX LAW WILL FACE A BATTLE

Coolidge Signs Act; Serves Notice of Desired Change.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Washington, June 3.—A new federal tax law is on the statute books today, but it will have to weather a determined fight by the administration to obtain a law more to its liking at the next session of congress to remain there. President Coolidge served notice in a statement issued with his signature of the tax reduction bill yesterday that he would bend all energies to obtain passage at the next session of a bill, "less political and more economic."

Despite its "obvious defects," the president said in his statement, he had signed the bill as serving the best interests of the country because of "its advantages as a temporary relief and a temporary adjustment of business conditions," adding that a "correction of its defects may be left to the next session of congress."

The bill which the president declared represents merely "tax reduction, not tax reform," cuts federal revenues by an amount estimated at $361,000,000 for the next fiscal year and decreases tax rates generally to the lowest level since 1917. Almost every federal tax payer shares in the tax relief afforded.

The tax payer is granted the immediate relief of a 25 percent decrease in income taxes for the current year now due. The repeal of many excise taxes, such as those on telegraph and telephone messages, soft drinks, candy and theater admissions of 50c or less, also will be felt within 30 days.

Preparations for administration of the act went forward today in the treasury and a formal estimate of $20,000,000 for refunding the 25 percent retroactive reduction to those who paid their 1923 income taxes in full March 15 was before Director Lord of the budget. These refunds, for which congress must make the necessary appropriation, are to be paid as quickly as possible without application from tax payers.

The president's criticisms were directed chiefly at the measure's failure to make greater reductions in surtaxes or forbid further issuance of tax exempt securities, at the increase to a maximum of forty percent in the estate tax, the publicity features and the action of congress in reducing the salaries recommended for members of the board of tax appeals and affecting their terms of office.

Secretary Mellon announced that organization of the board of taxes would be started immediately.

May Block Adjournment.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Washington, June 3.—The plans of senate leaders to push through a concurrent resolution for adjournment of congress next Saturday night, encountered another obstacle today in a concerted attack by senators interested in final disposition of the Muscle Shoals problem at this session. While on both sides of the chamber the party managers continued in favor of the announced adjournment program, the drive by supporters of the Ford Muscle Shoals proposal began to cause some anxiety. Senator Underwood, democrat, Alabama, sought unsuccessfully to obtain unanimous consent to make the pending Muscle Shoals bill the unfinished business of the senate. He then served notice that at the earliest opportunity he would move formally for consideration of the bill.

Abandon McNary Bill.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Washington, June 3.—Before a vote could be reached today in the house on the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill supporters of the measure, conceding its defeat, agreed to work for the adoption of a substitute. A vote on the McNary-Haugen bill was the first order of business in the house today, but its supporters gave up hope for its passage yesterday and began a series of conferences looking to some action for relief of agriculture before Saturday night.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) New York, June 3.—A ninth meeting between the lightweight champion Benny Leonard and the featherweight and junior lightweight king, Johnny Dundee, in "on the cards" following the elimination of Luis Vicentini, light middleweight champion of Chile in a 12 round bout by Dundee last night.

Told of Suicide Plans

He told of two suicide plans he had made to carry out in the event "they made it too hot for me." One was to get ten powders made up, nine containing baking soda and a tenth filled with poison. His plan was to take the poison if he was "unable to talk myself out of the mess."

A second plan was detailed after detectives found two automatic pistols in his home after he told them the weapons had been carried in the automobile at the time of the kidnapping as a preparation for pursuit. Leopold

TRACY MURDER, MUTILATION OF REAM MAY HAVE BEEN BY SLAYER OF YOUNG FRANKS

Identified Yesterday by Charles Ream as Men Who Maimed Him by Operation—Grand Jury Received Cases

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Chicago, June 3.—State's Attorney Crowe today in starting grand jury investigation of the kidnapping and slaying of Robert Franks, 14, which has been confessed by Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, millionaires' sons, officially began inquiry to determine whether they were connected with the murder of Freeman L. Tracy and the mutilation of Charles Ream last fall.

Says Bullet Fits Pistol. A declaration that the bullet which killed Freeman Louis Tracy, a student, on Nov. 25 last, fits one of the pistols found in the room of Leopold was made today by Dr. Joseph Springer, coroner's physician.

The physician's statement is the first clue that the authorities have found to connect the kidnappers with the Tracy murder, one of the most mysterious slayings which ever confronted the police.

Mutilated Ream? Leopold and Loeb, self-confessed kidnappers and slayers of young Franks from whose father they attempted to extort a ransom of $10,000, were identified yesterday as the attackers who maimed Charles Ream by an operation of mutilation only five days after the killing of Tracy.

Tracy, who previously had been a special student at the University of Chicago, was found slain virtually on the campus, his body having been left on the street at 58th street and Woodlawn avenue. He had been shot through the head.

Although he had an artificial foot, Tracy was popular in a social way among student friends and other acquaintances and so far as searching investigation disclosed, never had an enemy.

Slain in Automobile. He had left a party of friends about midnight the night of November 24 and was found murdered early the next morning. It appeared to the police that he had been slain and then thrown from an automobile.

The Ream case more sensational, but less of a mystery to the police, although the assaults were not found, occurred five days after the slaying of Tracy.

He blamed the 18 and 19-year-old kidnappers for a ruined life and declared he would know them anywhere, especially Leopold.

"I knew them when I saw their pictures in the newspapers," Ream declared. "It was Leopold who prepared the bandage."

Slept in County Jail. The youthful kidnappers-slayers, who claimed they killed the Franks boy through a spirit of adventure and for the $10,000 ransom they demanded of his father, Jacob Franks, spent last night in the county jail. Their removal from custody of the state's attorney who has held them since they were first questioned last week, came at the end of opening skirmish of a legal battle with millions for the defense, which had petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus. Hearing on the writ was continued to June 6.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe declared he would have both indicted by tonight and arrested on the mittimus.

Last night Leopold and Loeb took their places in line with vagrants and drug addicts in the jail receiving line, were bathed, examined and registered. They were assigned to separate cells.

Typewriter Alone Missing. Finding of a letter written to Jacob Franks by the boys in a Michigan Central Railroad car in New York has completed the collection of evidence made by the state, according to Mr. Crowe, with the exception of a portable typewriter on which the ransom demand was written. Divers are searching a park lagoon into which the typewriter was hurled.

The letter found in the railroad car was part of the directions to Mr. Franks for the delivery of the $10,000 ransom, Mr. Crowe said.

The promise by State's Attorney Crowe that he will seek the death penalty for the youths has not shaken Leopold from the contemptuous philosophical attitude maintained since arrest.

"Death doesn't make any difference," he said. "It's the end. Why, nobody's afraid of death."

Divorce is On Trial.

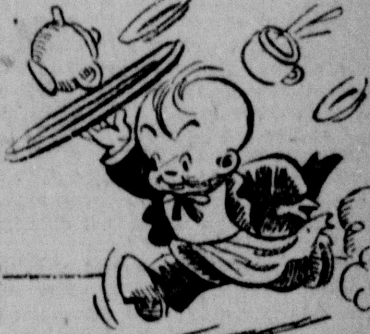

Chicago, June 3.—Mrs. Belva Gaertner, divorced from a wealthy manufacturer, went on trial today charged with the murder of Walter Law, an automobile salesman, shot to death in her automobile after a cabaret party at an inn. Prospective jurors were asked by the state if they had scruples against inflicting the death penalty.

THE WEATHER

FASHION EXPERT SAYS MEN'S CLOTHING IS GOING TO BE WORN IN RAINBOW HUES—AND THEIR POCKETBOOKS ARE GOING TO BE WORN A LOT FLATTER

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1924.

Illinois: Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; rising temperature Wednesday and in extreme north portion tonight. Chicago and vicinity: Fair tonight, Wednesday probably increasing cloudiness and somewhat warmer; moderate variable winds. Wisconsin: Fair tonight, probably followed by increasing cloudiness Wednesday; rising temperature in west and central portions tonight and in southeast portion Wednesday. Iowa: Fair tonight and probably Wednesday; somewhat warmer tonight.

He had access to the pistols Friday night when officers were searching his room for the muddy boots worn when the Franks boy's body was hidden.

Would Have Shot Self. "If I had only known that Loeb was peaching at the time," he said, "I'd have killed myself there in the room. Do you recall when I was standing at my desk?" he asked detectives. "I had my hand on my gun. But before I killed myself I'd have put a few policemen out of the way. Yes, I'd have got you."

Leopold maintained his nonchalant air at the coroner's inquest into young Frank's death, reopened yesterday and continued to June 27. Loeb, called by his erstwhile boon companion "that chump that dropped my glasses" and the "weakling who confessed" had lost some of the unperturbed carelessness both maintained up to the time they confessed.

Cattle Disease Checked.

(By Associated Press Leased Wire) Washington, June 3.—The foot and mouth disease among cattle in California appears to have been checked. Department of Agriculture officials announced today, but they declared they could not be certain of complete eradication for several months.

Flare-ups of the disease are expected and the absence of new contagion for a few days, though encouraging, should not give livestock owners erroneous belief that the disease is entirely eradicated, officials pointed out. The continued improvement has made possible the release from quarantine of additional territory.

Warning was issued by officials of the bureau of animal industry against placing confidence in alleged cures for foot and mouth disease. There is no dependable cure.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR HEROES BURIED AT CAPITAL

At Least Twenty-four at Rest in Cemetery at Springfield.

Springfield.—At least 24 heroes of the Revolutionary war, some of whom stood with the Minute Men at Lexington and suffered the agonies of Valley Forge, are buried in Sangamon county, according to records of local historians. Many of the graves are almost within shadow of the State House. Although half of the veterans of the Revolution buried in the county came from the Virginia line, the others represented every section of the colonies and took part in all of the major engagements of the war. Among the principal battles in which they engaged are: Pontiac, expedition against the Cherokee, Monmouth, Brandywine, Germantown, Stony Point, Yorktown, Camden and Stony Brook, the last skirmish of the war.

John Overstreet, who enlisted in the first Virginia cavalry regiment at the age of 15, and who is buried in Fancy Creek township, probably saw more of the revolution than any of the other Illinois veterans. Overstreet served at Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth, Stony Point, Yorktown, and told of the famous march of Washington's army to Valley Forge, in which he among others, carried the snow with blood from his frozen lacerated feet. After the war he moved to Ohio and then to Sangamon county. He lived to be very old and for many years was an invalid, but his comrades held him in such esteem that he was carried, in a chair, to the Independence Day celebration each year until his death. Other Revolutionary heroes who lie in Illinois are:

Isaac Baker, Maryland, served as a fifer during the last two years of the war, buried in Rochester cemetery.

Moses Broadwell, New Jersey, entered the army near the close of the war, buried at Oak Ridge cemetery where Lincoln's body lies.

George Bryan, took part in the Indian fighting west of the Alleghenies, buried at Woodside.

John Burton, served on the Virginia line, buried in Chatham township.

Enos Campbell, came from Scotland, served six years before moving to Illinois, buried in the county.

Christian Carver, born in Northampton county, Penn., buried in Clear Lake township.

Michael Clifford, born in New Jersey, served at Pedee river and in the expedition against the Cherokees, buried in the county unknown.

Philip Crowder, born in Virginia, served on the Virginia line, buried in a family lot at Springfield.

James Dingeman, member of the Pennsylvania Militia, buried at River-ton.

Robert Fiske, Minute Man at Lexington, buried in an unmarked grave in some portion of the county.

John Lockridge, served at Guilford Court House, Cowpens and many other battles, buried at Chatham.

Thomas Paul, served at Salem, Zachariah Nance, Stony Point and Monmouth, grave lost.

William Penny, North Carolina, buried in Richland township.

John Purvings, entered the army at the age of 16, fought at Camden and Stony Brook, buried at Richland cemetery.

William Ralston, siege of Yorktown, buried in Morgan township.

Thomas Royal, came from England to serve, buried in Bell township.

James Turley, fought at Germantown, buried east of Springfield.

John White, fought in Pennsylvania. No record of his burial place.

Three other Sangamon county veterans are known to be buried in the county, but their names and burial places have been lost.

William Ralston, siege of Yorktown, buried in Morgan township.

Thomas Royal, came from England to serve, buried in Bell township.

James Turley, fought at Germantown, buried east of Springfield.

John White, fought in Pennsylvania. No record of his burial place.

Smiths Victorious Over So. Central; Title to N. Central

STANDING OF THE TEAMS

Team	W	L	Pct.

E. C. Smith	3	3	.500
South Central	3	3	.500

(By MURPHY)

The E. C. Smith baseball team defeated the South Central team yesterday afternoon at the South Side park in the grade school baseball tournament by a score of 14-10, after going an extra inning, and by so doing, tied with the South Central for second place in the league standings.

The Smiths really worked to win the game and played better ball than at any time during the season, and although errors were numerous on both sides they were not due to indifference or carelessness.

The heavy work rested on the pitchers with McCrystal having the best of the argument, getting 13 strikeouts in the eight innings and allowing but one hit. In the seventh, with the score tied at 6-6, both teams managed to get four runs apiece, the "Red Brickers" by hits, (3 two-baggers in a row) and the North Central by errors. In their half of the extra inning, the Smiths again landed on the ball, driving in four runs while the South Central were retired in short order by a double play and a strikeout. This victory for the E. C. Smith not only places them in a tie for second place, but clinches the pennant for the North Central.

Baptists Hold Final Session of Big Meet
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Milwaukee, Wis., June 3.—A final session here today and the Northern Baptist Convention will have passed into history, closing a remarkable chapter in the history of denomination conventions. Fraught with bitterness, issues between fundamentalists and modernists in the earlier days of the convention, resolved themselves into a number of compromises that resulted in a better feeling among the rank and file of delegates.

The principal business to be transacted today includes discussions on the program for negro members and churches of the denomination, reports of the committees on city mission, conferences with other religious bodies, law, foreign language preaching, federal council of churches of Christ in America, and the American Baptist Historical Society.

PAT HARRISON HAS SOME JOB.

Now we shall discover what kind of a diplomat Pat Harrison can be. For these many years Senator Byron Patton Harrison of Mississippi has pursued a thorny way. Many a republican conceit has collapsed at contact with one of his bitter shafts of irony. Now a much harder task faces him. He must mix roses with his thorns.

Mr. Harrison is to be keynote speaker at the democratic national convention. As temporary chairman, he must hold up to national scorn the sins of the republican party. For Pat, that will be easy. But he must also laud democratic virtues to the skies. Any one might shy at that task.

The senator must deal vocally with the oil situation. As it concerns republicans, he will be able to spout burning oil to his heart's content. But unfortunately for the speaker, there is a serious complication, one William Gibbs McAdoo. Unless Mr. Harrison aims his oil so expertly that it will travel around a corner, some of the fiery liquid is bound to strike Mr. McAdoo. And as a large number of the delegates to the convention will be pledged to Mr. McAdoo, such an incident would be decidedly unfortunate.

Then there is the large question of prohibition. Senator Harrison must denounce in unmeasured terms the failure of the republican administration to enforce successfully the Volstead act. And he must ignore the action of Governor Alfred E. Smith's New York legislature in repealing state prohibition. When Senator Harrison speaks, William Jennings Bryan will be awaiting eagerly his complete indorsement of prohibition as a theory and as a practice; and Senator Edwards of New Jersey will be awaiting the assurance that the nation is on its way back. As if the prohibition question were not enough, Senator Oscar W. Underwood has insisted that Ku Kluxism be considered by the delegates.

There are other problems. But these are plenty. If Mr. Harrison can discuss them without offense or ignore them plausibly he will make a name for himself. But he will not be envied in his task.

POORHOUSE.

A luxurious poorhouse for down-and-out rich men is opened in New York. It's described as rivaling a first-class hotel in comforts and beauty. Built and maintained by a fund of five million dollars, let by Andrew Freedman, capitalist and baseball magnate who died in 1915.

Back of it all is the principle that if you've never had big money you don't know what you're missing.

How about rich men's home for the old age of people who have always rubbed elbows with poverty? Still better, change the system as there wouldn't be any need for poorhouses. Poverty is inexcusable in the midst of our tremendous national wealth and prosperity.

RADIOED.

Sending photographs long distances by radio is not going to be as easy to do as to talk about. Interference and fading have to be mastered first. They'll be mastered, all right. But it'll take time. This is, however, one scientific wonder that you'll find in general use within 10 or 20 years. The entire science of radio is in its infancy. One of these days batteries for long distant receiving sets. Sounds impossible, but it's already done by crystal sets, 30 miles radius. If 30 why not 8000?

On the other hand, it may be that some of these Americans radicals are corrupting the Russians.

TOM SIMS SAYS

Great Britain is striving for the cotton supremacy of the world so our boll weevils be indicted for helping her.

They quieted down in Washington one day recently long enough to cuss the railroads for a few rounds.

The sad thing about being a rich man's son is the world doesn't get a chance to teach you very much sense.

Every small town telephone is a broadcasting station.

If you don't hear as many cuss words as you usually hear it may be because they are attending the political conventions.

A man who escaped from the Arkansas pen 13 years ago was caught in Memphis, Tenn., proving all detectives are not in Washington.

About the only thing a modern girl is shy of is shyness.

The weather is getting so warm five toes in one shoe are becoming one or two toes too many.

A small town is a place where you can take a correct census of the population at any fire.

Civilization started in Egypt and these Egyptian clothes are ending it in America.

Blue shirts are the summer style for men even though it doesn't seem possible because they are so sensible.

If something isn't done in Washington soon the detectives are going to work themselves to death.

Assurance of immediate tax reduction was given again today for the sixtieth time within the last two months.

Texas Rangers have sent the Prince of Wales a wild pony and if he doesn't look out this will be a horse on him.

The nicest thing about an electric fan is it doesn't make any smoke or ashes and never goes out.

In Butte, Mont., a man fired 11 shots into a crowded court without hurting anything except the wild west reputation.

No matter if they shingle or bob or what they do to their hair, a spit curl always looks as if it needs pulling.

France, it seems, is determined to remain in the Ruhr even when all she can get out of it is herself.

In Afghanistan, kids of five years marry; while in America, married couples often act that age.

Largest Eskimo village in Alaska has 600 Eskimos, but none of the women were Eskimonas.

UNFIT.

Uncle Sam is fighting to stop the packing of salmon which have been held so long out of water that they are unsalable in a fresh fish market. Fifty-eight batches seized and condemned. This is done under the national pure food act, which is as sensible a piece of legislation as we've had in our history.

You learn something about business ethics when it takes the government, backed by all the power of the courts, to prevent rotten fish being sold to the public in tin cans by a few unscrupulous cannerymen. But don't be afraid to eat canned salmon. On the average, it's safer and purer to eat than so-called "fresh fish" in city markets. When gone bad, it can usually be detected by odor and unnatural color. Most cannerymen pack fresh.

COMING.

Business will make a turn for the better in the not distant future, predicts Willis L. King. He's vice president of Jones & Laughlin, powerful in the steel industry.

King looks for better times after the presidential nominating conventions. The really big spurt upward will come after the fall elections, according to opinions of leading business men.

Times cannot continue dull very long, that's sure. Stocks of raw materials in manufacturers' hands and finished goods in retail stores are low. There has been little overbuying or overproduction.

Have you seen the new earrings that reach the shoulders, and keep the ears from flopping?

"Why, I thought maybe you'd help me with that."

Mister Ringtail Coon came into the little store in the woods and walked up to the counter and said, "I would like to buy some party invitations, please, with pink edges and a picture on top."

"Here's the very thing, Mister Coon," said Nancy. "What are you giving, a birthday party of a dinner party?"

"Neither," answered Mister Coon. "I'm giving a radio party. I'm going to ask all my friends in to hear my new radio machine that I bought."

"That will be fine," said Nancy. "What are you going to say on your invitations?"

"Why, I thought maybe you'd help me with that," said Mister Coon. "You see, I am no great hand at writing. I sort of thought I'd begin this way: 'I take my pen in hand to ask you to—'

"That's too old fashioned," said Nancy. "Suppose you say, 'Mister Coon requests the pleasure of your company on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. R. S. V. P.'"

"Sounds pretty elegant," said Mister Coon. "But what does the R. S. V. P. mean? Refreshments served very promptly, I suppose."

"Oh, no!" said Nancy. "It's French. It means to please send an answer right away."

And so it was arranged. Nancy wrote all the invitations to Mister Coon's radio party, and Nick took them around.

When all the neighbors received invitations with pink edges and a picture on top and such fine words, there was a great flurry and commotion.

"I haven't a thing to wear!" called Mrs. Cracknuts out of her front window to Mrs. Bunney.

New Time Card Sunday.

A new time card went into effect on the Northwestern railway Sunday morning, in which train No. 6, east bound, due in Dixon at 3:50 a. m. is taken off. The Peoria passenger will hereafter leave Dixon at 8:30 a. m. instead of at 8:25 and will arrive in Peoria at 11:45 a. m. instead of at 12:05 p. m. No. 21, east bound, now leaves Dixon at 6:13 p. m., seven minutes earlier than at present; No. 7, west bound, arrives at Dixon at 10:18 p. m. instead of at 10:24 and No. 1, westbound, arrives here at 10:32 instead of at 10:35.

To Print Addresses.

Washington, June 3.—Even should congress adjourn Saturday, the keynote speech of Representative Burton at the republican national convention and of Senator Harrison at the democratic convention are to be printed in the congressional record.

Unanimous consent has been given by the senate for publication of the speeches in the final edition of the record.

Shot by Hold-Up Men.

Chicago, June 3.—Charles Wahl and J. Pomeroy were shot and probably fatally wounded by bandits whom they resisted in an attempted holdup of a west side real estate office today.

"Me either," said Mrs. Bunney. "I've worn my brown alpaca with the white spots to every mortal thing that's ever gone on. And the moths got into Ben's best trousers and I don't know what he's ever going to do."

"Oh, well," called Mrs. Squirrel. "I'm going to wear the same old gray I've worn for ages. So what's the difference. I got some new white lace for curtains, and I'll use it for ruffles instead. Ruffles are very fashionable Mrs. Bunney."

That's the way people were talking everywhere in the Green Woods about Mister Coon's party. For Mister Coon was quite a dude, and when people went to his house they liked to look their best.

Mister Coon's parlor was on the ground floor, for many of his guests like the Bunnies and the Ground Hogs and the Mud Turtles never could have climbed his steep stairs.

Mister Coon was all dressed up in his best hat and tucker with a new striped necktie which exactly matched his tail.

He stood at the door and shook hands with all of his guests as they arrived. Nancy and Nick and Mister Bages, the fairman, being the very last. "Now we'll begin," said Mister Coon. "We will first hear some singing from New York and then a bed-time story from Chicago and then a band concert from San Francisco."

"Do tell!" exclaimed all the Green Woods people; settling themselves for a good time. "We're so glad you asked us, Mister Coon."

"I'll tell you the rest about the party tomorrow."

Gibbons Thinks Carp Tried to "Fox" Him

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Paul, Minn., June 3.—Tommy Gibbons, back from Michigan City, Ind., where he defeated Georges Carpentier of France, Saturday, said today he believed the Frenchman was trying to "fox" him in the ninth and tenth rounds of their bout.

According to Gibbons, Carpentier after shaking hands before the tenth round said "you wouldn't punch a fellow with a broken leg." Carpentier injured his ankle in the ninth round. Gibbons plans to spend a month or so with his family at their summer home at Lake Okauch, Minn., pending outcome of negotiations for future bouts.

Confederate Veterans Annual Reunion Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Memphis, Tenn., June 3.—Thousands of confederate veterans and visitors from every section of the southland poured into this flag-cloaked city today for the opening session tomorrow of the 34th annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans and the annual meeting of the Sons of Confederate Veterans and the Confederate Southern Memorial Association.

As the throngs arrived, each delegation accompanied by tottering old men in gray, the cycle of festivities planned for the week began revolving.

The first major event was the tribute to the confederacy scheduled for this afternoon when meeting with the memorial association in its initial session, the reunion hosts were to unite in a memorial day service to the confederate dead and a celebration of Jefferson Davis' birthday anniversary, which is observed throughout the southern states today.

Following this service graves of confederate soldiers in local cemeteries will be decorated.

LETTER FROM RUTH ELLINGTON TO LESLIE PRESCOTT, CONTINUED

This was my experience, Leslie. A woman who is true to her husband cannot conceive of her husband being untrue to her unless the acts are very flagrant.

However, I did not start in to talk about my own troubles to any great extent.

Do you know, my dear Leslie, I've almost come to believe that your destiny is bound up in that fateful string of pearls. Think of it—one of them stolen, and you got it back without any undue publicity; three of them sold, and you got them back after over six months, when one might think that in the ordinary course of events they might have been sold two or three times over.

Karl Whitney, my dear, must be a very sentimental young man. I'm glad you didn't marry him, dear. You're a lovely, charming woman, but I'm sure you could have never lived up to his ideal of you. He is really having more happiness in losing you than he would have had had he won you.

I know you'll see the humor of this, dear, because you're very human.

Just now I'm rather concerned about the outcome of your confession to Jack that the pearls are real. He might stand for the gift of the pearls under the circumstances, but will he stand for the gift of perhaps fifteen thousand dollars to his wife after her marriage from her former sweet heart, for that's virtually what you would better keep to yourself.

To Karl Whitney the great moments of his life cluster about your necklace, and while I do not think he is in love with Alice, I think he has endowed her with a great many of your attributes. When he finds she hasn't them he will be very unhappy, and he again will worship that deal of you.

Rather a complicated affair, Leslie, and in the last analysis one that you will have to decide for yourself.

It rather amuses me to think that in the supposedly placid life of Mrs. John Alden Prescott Jr., there is so much romance, so much adventure, so much suspense. I am quite sure that none of your friends would dream that you have had more drama in your life than I have had in mine, but it is so. Mine was an explosion in one act, and yours promises to be a continued story in which the suspense will probably last through many volumes.

Your mother seems to be obsessed with the idea that there is a secret drawer in that desk she gave you. I went up to your house the other day and found her fingering it all over. I hope you haven't found one yourself and put anything in it that you wouldn't like other eyes to see.

Lovingly, RUTH.

MINISTERS ARE TOLD OF DIXON COLONY MONDAY

Managing Officer Dr. Murray Spoke to the Preachers.

Monday's meeting of the Dixon Ministers' Association was somewhat out of the ordinary, but one of the most interesting of the whole year. The Dixon State Hospital, or "colony" as it is commonly called, was the subject of study, and Dr. Warren G. Murray, Superintendent, was the lecturer.

The care of the patients, discussions of the nature and degrees of feeble-mindedness, and the history of the Dixon Hospital, which was originally intended as an epileptic colony only, were included in the Doctor's address. Thorough explanation was made of the use of the Binet-Simons tests in arriving at the intelligence quotient of each patient, and some half-dozen illustrations of the various degrees of mentality were shown. The Doctor took special pains to correct the popular understanding of the term "moron," which in scientific circles indicates any person of subnormal intelligence whose mental age, according to the tests, falls below twelve years and above seven.

In the afternoon a delegation of the ministers was shown through the hospital by Dr. Murray, and they were impressed with the cleanliness of the buildings, the splendid care for all the patients, and the need of further facilities, especially an Assembly Hall for Sunday services and popular amusements. At present the laundry building is the only place available. The visitors were all brought to a higher appreciation of the greatness of this work of mercy and relief, and expressed themselves as most delighted with the evidences of sympathetic and efficient management on the part of Dr. Murray and his staff of doctors, nurses, and supervisors.

The Ministers' Association will hold no more regular meetings until September, and new officers were chosen at Monday's meeting as follows. The Rev. Aubrey S. Moore, president (re-elect), the Rev. F. Brandteller, secretary, B. H. Cleaver, vice president.

Oak Forest Youth Sent Mementoes of Saskatoon, Canada

Oak Forrest—Frank Hoyle recently sent from Saskatoon, Canada, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoyle, the beautifully tanned skin of a deer which he himself had shot. He also sent a deer skin shirt, a pair of gloves and eight pair of Indian moccasins, made of moose hide, some of them beaded, and a number of interesting snapshots taken by himself. There are several pictures of the town of Big River taken from the top of the fire rangers lookout, 70 feet in the air and on top of a high hill. The pictures are remarkably clear. There were also several pictures taken at the dog derby. Frank is at present working near Rosetown, Sask., on a ranch of 800 acres. He says they have finished seeding and the wheat seeded is up four inches high. But, he tells us, that on May 19 it froze down to third of an inch thick. Frank says: "It was pretty cold in the field. I had on my winter underwear and shirt and overalls, my fur cap, heavy moose hide pants and sheep skin vest and my mackinaw, then it still felt a little chilly." Frank also sent a 25 cent paper bill but says he has never seen a silver dollar in Canada. He thinks that he will stay around Rosetown this summer. He says: "Big River is a fine place but I don't think I will go back next winter; not when I think of that one night on the freight road when he got to a log cabin about 10 o'clock one night. The cabin had no doors or windows in so we hung some of our blankets over the opening. In one corner was a small fireplace made of clay. We had to dig some wood out of the snow to start a fire, but it was one of those nice warm nights around 45 below zero. I remember one other night in a small tent, it was only a little colder. I woke up with my feet about frozen, put some wood in the little camp stove and then went to sleep again and burned one sock just about off. But I had a fine time any way. There is one of those cyclone winds on again and they blow away most everything that is loose. I am sleeping in a small four room house by myself and it is tipping around ready to fly off most any time."

If she only knew that she could put on at least 5 pounds of good, healthy flesh in 30 days she wouldn't be worrying about her peaked face and run-down looks.

She has tried Cod Liver Oil, but the ill-smelling, nasty tasting stuff upset her stomach and made her feel worse than before.

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins that make flesh, creates appetite, builds up the power to resist disease and chases away nervousness.

But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it for doctors are prescribing and fast learning that they can get better results with McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, which Rowland's Pharmacy and drugists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for.

It's a wonderful upbuilding medicine for children, especially after sickness, and sixty tablets only cost 60 cents.

One woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist will gladly return the purchase price.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."

CHILD DROWNS IN CHICKEN WATERING TANK AT BROOKLYN

Little Son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zinke Victim of a Tragedy.

West Brooklyn—The news of a tragedy came from the William Zinke farm, southeast of town, Saturday evening which shocked the whole community. Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Zinke, age 2½ years, had followed his father out to the barn to watch him do the chores about 8:30. While his father was about the barn, the little fellow went to play in a chicken watering tank which was round and of the fountain type. His father had placed a stone in front so the smaller chicks would be able to reach the water. The tank had but four inches of water in it and it is presumed that the boy, reaching down to play in the water lost his balance and fell headlong. Being unable to get himself upon his feet again he did not drown, but suffocated, because there was not any water in his lungs. Examination proved. When a physician arrived he tried artificial respiration, but to no avail, even though the lad could not have been submerged but a few minutes. The boy was the youngest of a family of four children. The funeral services were held from the home of the child's parents, Tuesday and burial took place at the Perkins Grove cemetery. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.
